

GREENWOOD ES...

Performing Arts Club/Improv K - 5...the history of theatre, different kinds of theatre, stage directions, projection, blocking, improvisation and performing dialogue

A fun, collaborative, performance based arts offering for elementary school children to learn and explore the art of theatre.

This is a fun way to learn and explore the world of theatre and dramatic arts by working together to create a fun performance based sharing using created props, costume and set pieces.

Play fun theatre games and exercises and warm ups that build towards the creation and performance of an invited guest show!

Pamela Jackson has been providing arts programming for over 20 years for MCPS, programs sponsored in part with MCRD as well as the Arts and Humanities Council of Montgomery County. Pamela is a certified teaching artist as well as audition coach, director, and theatre teacher. She is a member of SAG-AFTRA (Screen Actors Guild/American Federation of Television and Radio Artists) AEA (Actor's Equity Association) does voice over work and is a precision driver for TV and Film. She is also a playwright and comic book author and illustrator.
