

GREENWOOD ES - Winter 2019 - All New

Performing Arts + Improv Club (Grades K - 5)

A fun, collaborative, performance based arts offering for elementary school children to learn and explore the art of theatre. This is a fun way to learn and explore the world of theatre and dramatic arts by working together to create a fun performance based sharing using created props, costume and set pieces.

Play fun theatre games and exercises and warm ups that build towards the creation and performance of an invited guest show!

Instructor Pamela Jackson is a playwright and comic book author and illustrator. She has been providing arts programming for over 20 years for MCP5. Pamela is a certified teaching artist as well as audition coach, director, and theatre teacher. She is a member of SAG-AFTRA (Screen Actors Guild/American Federation of Television and Radio Artists) AEA (Actor's Equity Association) does voice over work and is a precision driver for TV and Film.
